SOME GOOD PRACTICES

- All officers regularly have face to face meeting with the students to resolve their problems and also to consolidate learner support services.
- Timely and effective communications are made to the students for the changes effected in the support system on account of unavoidable circumstances (closure/shifting of Study Centres, conduct of practical for B.Sc.; computer programmes , distribution of study material).
- Very close coordination with the Hqrs. (particularly RSD, SED, SRD and MPDD) is maintained for resolving student problems.
- Strict adherence to the guidelines/deadlines of the hqrs. is followed in transmission of various data, report etc.
- Timely availability of requisite support (academic, administrative and financial) is ensured to LSCs for strengthening the overall support system.
- The monthly monitoring reports, account statements are submitted on time to the HQs. Financial books and records are maintained up-to-date.
- All the staff members are provided necessary exposure and training in handling the computerized support system for quick redressal of the student support related matters.
