

NOTICE

All registered learners are hereby informed that the LSC 38042 is planning to start the MSCENV practical classes. The LSC has received various concerns about the schedule w.e.f. June 5, 2022. The schedule will be as per the availability of the counsellor and laboratory. Individual learners will have to make to take their own arrangements for the classes as per the schedule.

It has been decided to postpone the MSCENV MEVL-011 schedule till further notice.

Meanwhile the enrolled learners for the MSCENV at LSC-38042 kindly register before June 12, 2022 5pm to enable us to plan the schedule as per the requirement. Kindly note that each learner can register for more than one lab, as per requirement, but the he/she can attend only one practical lab at a time as allotted by the LSC. The allotment will be as per the availability of the lab only.
